The gloves were off for the Men's junior singles.

John Squire won the men's Junior singles with Leighton Duley the runner up.

*The man stood at the Pearly Gate,
His face was worn and old.
He meekly asked St. Peter
For admittance to the fold.

But what have you done? St. Peter asked,
To gain admittance here,
I've been a Bowling Umpire, Sir,
For many and many a year.

The Pearly Gate swung open wide
As Peter touched the bell,
Come in, my man, and grab a harp,
You've had your share of hell!*

Winners of the Bert Sutcliffe triples tournament with our sponsors.

Leon, Kelly, Jill, Sue and Todd were very good supporters at the 242 nights. All new members.

Congratulations to the team from Milford for winning our February mixed triples tournament.

Geoff and Keith are new sponsors in the club. They are "Bowls Warehouse". Any bowling gear you need, have a chat or look on their website.

The Monday Morning workers enjoy scones made by Jackie.

The Junior Pairs was won by John Squire and Gary Martelli. Runners up were Paddy Benstead and Mike Lobel.

The first year bowlers Singles championship was between Todd Mowat and Graye Allnutt, with Graye winning the title.

The club AGM is on Sunday
13th June at 1.30pm.
